TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

It is with much sincerity that I wish to give a true and correct reference for AMANDA BLANKFIELD, who has been employed by us from July 2007 until the end of February 2013, as Marketing Manager.

Per of her responsibility was also event management, which she handled in not only the most efficient, but most cost effective manner, and with all the outcomes being to our absolute satisfaction.

This is a lady who works not only with her head, but very much with her heart. She has a particular love for children, and to help them uplift their lives.

In all the years with us, she has also proved to be a popular team player and all of us in the organization have loved her for all the wonderful qualities that she possesses and we were very sad indeed, but understood her motives, when she decided to take a new role in life.

We can say, without any hesitation, that we can recommend her for a position which incorporates her skills, as you will be able to evidence her ability to create success through her passion for her commitments.

If you need to, I would be only too delighted to answer any questions and queries, as I am sure other members of the organization will equally be most willing to assist her in whichever way we can, taking into account the wonderful contribution she has made to us over the years.

We can only wish her all of the very best for her future.
